

Chain of Responsibility (CoR) legislation extends the general liability for offences to road freight consignors, receivers, packers and loaders. Rather than pursue the 'soft target' on the roadside, truck drivers and operators, authorities can investigate along the supply chain and up and down the corporate chain of command. The days of 'all care and no responsibility' are over.

TLIF0003 DEVELOP AND IMPLEMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES TO ENSURE CHAIN OF RESPONSIBILITY COMPLIANCE (CoR LEVEL 3)

The CoR Level 3 Course relates to developing and implementing Chain of Responsibility systems to ensure compliance with regulations. It includes identifying and interpreting relevant regulations, developing workplace systems and reviewing operations in line with Chain of Responsibility regulations. Participants receive a comprehensive manual of over 50 generic policies and procedure documents.

WHO SHOULD COMPLETE THIS COURSE?

CoR legislation extends responsibilities to anyone whose actions, inactions or demands can put driver's lives or other lives at risk. Any party who has control in the transport chain can be held responsible and may be legally liable. Senior managers in an organisation that is part of the Chain of Responsibility should complete this course.

WHAT ARE THE COURSE OBJECTIVES?

- Explain the CoR Framework of policies, procedures and tools;
- Assess your organisation's requirements for policies, procedures and tools;
- Develop new policies, procedures and tools where gaps are identified;
- Validate existing policies, procedures and tools in your workplace;
- Update existing policies, procedures and tools if they don't meet CoR requirements; and
- Monitor, review, analyse and audit CoR documents, records and information.

WHAT DOES THE COURSE INVOLVE?

This training course includes 6 modules and 3 assessments that are a combination of written and workplace-based (written, verbal and practical). It will take approximately 8-9 hours to complete the course and assessments.

WHAT MAKES THIS COURSE DIFFERENT?

This course will introduce a comprehensive CoR Framework designed to ensure CoR compliance in your workplace. The training will explore how compliance can be achieved and provide opportunity to review existing documents from your workplace to identify any deficiencies. Your final assessments will include development and review of CoR systems and in-depth discussion to explore processes and procedures to ensure compliance in your workplace.
